

RE-DISCOVERING THE ARAB WORLD

A Mosaic Foundation Lecture Series (Part 2)

The Life and Work of Naguib Mahfouz

Winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature

SPEAKER: DR. ROGER MICHAEL ASHLEY ALLEN

Professor of Arabic Language and Literature
University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Allen knew Mahfouz for over 30 years, translated many of his books and published numerous works on the author. He nominated him for the Nobel Prize in 1987.

NAGUIB MAHFOUZ

is the most highly regarded literary figure in the Arab world. This lecture and film presentation will commemorate a legendary man who published 34 novels, 350 short stories, dozens of movie scripts and five plays over a 70 year career. "Re-Discovering the Arab World" is a new series designed to foster a deeper understanding of the rich diversity of Arab culture, traditions, arts and history, amidst the background of current public interest.

Thursday, January 11, 2007

World Bank H Building
Eugene R. Black Auditorium
Entrance from 1914 G. Street N.W.
Washington, DC
5:30 - 6:00 pm Reception
6:00 - 7:30 pm Program

Name: _____

Title/Organization: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone: () _____

Co-Sponsored with World Bank/IMF Arab Club & World Bank Info Shop

World Bank/IMF Arab Club

This lecture is free & open to the public. Seating is limited.

Advance registration required by January 8, 2007

To register: Email info@mosaicfound.org or Fax form to (202) 388-0061

Mosaic Foundation USA is an American charitable and educational 501 (c) (3) nonprofit corporation sponsored by the spouses of the Arab Ambassadors to the U.S. Visit us at (www.mosaicfound.org)

730 11th Street NW, Suite 302, Washington, DC 20001 - Phone (202) 388-0000

